The Icelandic horse – the key to Icelandic nature, culture and history

The Icelandic horse arrived with the first settlers from Scandinavia in the 9th century and has played a vital role in Icelandic history and culture for centuries. This horse breed can master five gaits rather than just the usual three and is best known for the tölt, a special gait which is very smooth and comfortable for the rider.

Its lively temperament and friendly personality are amazing, and it is incredibly strong and sure-footed, allowing even beginners to feel safe and experience the soft tölt.

WELCOME TO ELDHESTAR - VOLCANO HORSES

This is Eldhestar's farm Vellir, where we have developed our activities since 1986 to combine pleasure, comfort and adventure in a way respecting nature.

Our farm is situated in the heart of Iceland's south-western countryside along Road No. 1, only 30 minutes' drive from Reykjavik. The unique location between volcanic mountains, rivers and the ocean enables our guests to experience diverse and fascinating nature. The area around the volcano Hengill with its beautiful valleys, hot springs and the chance to bath in natural warm water is the origin of our name: Volcano horses – Eldhestar in Icelandic.

Our guests can relax in a beautiful and peaceful environment, get to know fascinating nature with the Icelandic horses during the day and enjoy fine accommodations, food and drink in a cosy atmosphere in the evenings.

We emphasize personal service, safety and an environmentally friendly operation. Eldhestar is participant in VAKINN, Iceland tourism's official quality and safety label.

ELDHESTAR RIDING TOURS

We offer a variety of riding tours for inexperienced as well as experienced riders, for individuals and groups, all year round. We have up to 350 horses at our farm in the summer and 60-100 in the winter. We do our best to find the ideal horse for everyone. Most of our half day tours, day tours and combo tours are suited for all levels.

The shorter tours (2-5 days riding) provide further insight into the history and landscape of Iceland and take our guests to the most beautiful places in southwest Iceland.

On Eldhestar's longer and wilderness tours (5-7 days riding) participants experience the diversity of the Icelandic horse and try many different horses during the tour, which develops riding skills. We ride with a herd of free running horses just as Icelanders have travelled for centuries, an unforgettable experience!

Eldhestar provides helmets, rain gear and warm winter overalls, we recommend wearing sturdy shoes and gloves. The riding tours are subject to weather conditions and can be changed.

Our show- and competition horses are available for experienced riders wishing to enjoy a tour with a spirited tölter, please contact us.

In 2011 Hotel Eldhestar won both the environmental award issued by the Tourist Board of Iceland and the Municipality of Ölfus.

Welcome to Hotel Eldhestar

Hotel Eldhestar is a cozy countryside hotel with a luxurious atmosphere. It features 37 spacious rooms, a warm, light-filled restaurant and traditional hot tubs to relax in at the end of the day. The hotel's interior is inspired by the colors and materials found in Icelandic nature, genuine craftsmanship and age-old traditions. It was built in accordance with ecological guidelines and is the first lodging in Iceland to be awarded the Nordic Swan Ecolabel.

Our hotel is situated in the heart of Iceland's south-western countryside along Road No. 1, about a 30 minutes' drive from Reykjavik. The unique location between volcanic mountains, rivers and the ocean enables our guests to experience diverse nature and gorgeous scenery. The area around the volcano Hengill with its beautiful valleys and hot springs inspired our name: Eldhestar = Volcano Horses.

NORTHERN LIGHTS AT HOTEL ELDHESTAR

Since Hotel Eldhestar is a small countryside hotel, it is the ideal destination for those who want to experience the Northern Lights. Light pollution is minimal, and guests can often see this natural phenomenon on the site. All rooms have a door to the garden, so it is just to open the door and enjoy the moment, without much effort. We offer a Northern-Light wake-up service if hotel staff observes the Northern Lights.

HOTEL ELDHESTAR AS AN ATTRACTIVE CONFERENCE LOCATION

Hotel Eldhestar is suitable for all who want to experience relaxation, tranquillity and recreation in a beautiful environment. Our calm and scenic location, close to Reykjavik and the international airport, is ideally suited to host your meetings, seminars and conferences. Surrounded by inspiring, peaceful nature, you will find the privacy and isolation required for the concentration and creativity.

14 SNÆFELLSNES – Magic and Mystery: Black Lava and White Sand

The Snæfellsnes peninsula in West Iceland is often referred to as “Iceland in a nutshell” because of the diversity in landscape and wide range of colours. We ride through green valleys, across black lava fields, along the blue sea and on the golden beach. We begin outside Borgarnes, cross a river on our way to the old farm Grímsstadir and proceed into the wilderness. After hiking up the crater Eldborg we ride on one of the longest beaches in Iceland, Löngufjörur. The view is panoramic, with the ocean on one side, mountains on the other and the magical Snæfellsjökull Glacier before us.

Duration: 6 nights – 6 days riding - 190 km. Departures: July 22 and 31. The second tour goes in the opposite direction.

15 THE VOLCANO HEKLA – Mystique and fantastic riding paths

This tour takes us to the colourful area between the famous volcano Hekla and Tindafjallajökull Glacier which is known for amazing nature, shaped by the forces of volcanoes and ice. We ride on excellent, soft riding paths on black sandy ground covered by green grass and through lava fields in a mystic scenery of volcanic formations created through the centuries. On our way we pass beautiful hidden valleys, wide green pastures and mighty rivers. The route also follows an old trail known from the great Viking sagas.

Duration: 5 nights - 5 days riding - 160 km. Departures: June 14, July 12.

16 THE VALLEYS OF BORGARFJÖRDUR – Between Western Valleys and Thermal Pools

The fertile district Borgarfjörður in south western Iceland is known for some of Iceland’s most beautiful natural sights, an abundance of hot water from geothermal sources and as the setting of many Icelandic sagas. Starting in the town Borgarnes we ride on good trails in diverse landscape, often crossing rivers and riding along soft river banks. We experience riding in Húsafell forest and on mountain paths between green valleys with stunning views of the surrounding countryside, mighty rivers and glaciers. Borgarfjörður offers many top-notch swimming pools, allowing us to go for a swim every evening. We stay at the Community Center Logaland in the picturesque valley Reykholtsdalur during the whole tour.

Duration: 6 nights – 6 days riding - 185 km. Departures: June 16 and 27.

Wilderness Tours

The wilderness tours (17, 18, 19 & 20) are recommended only for experienced riders. They are physically challenging and require stamina. We ride with a large herd of free running horses.

Pick-up in Reykjavik: 17:30 - 18:00.

Riding Time:

4 - 9 hours per day with stops. Sleeping bag accommodations. Accommodations in Reykjavik is not included.

17 LANDMANNALAUGAR – Colourful mountains and soft lava sand

The tour starts at Fellsmuli farm close to the volcano Hekla and takes us to Landmannalaugar, a valley in the highlands best known for its colourful rhyolite mountains, extensive lava fields and hot springs that gave the valley its name. We ride over highlands alongside Hekla until we reach Landmannahellir, where farmers kept their sheep in a cave during the round-up in the old days. We follow soft trails to Landmannalaugar, where we can bath in a warm river before heading west towards a mountain pass of exceptional beauty, and a large lake. The tour ends at Fellsmúli farm.

Duration: 6 nights – 6 days riding - 210 km. Departures: June 21, July 1, August 1.

18 BETWEEN THE DESERTS – Cold Glaciers and Hot Springs

On this tour we ride in the area between the two highland deserts Kjölur and Sprengisandur, exploring in detail the landscape south of Hofsjökull, the third largest glacier in Iceland. We start the tour along the Hvítá River and visit the famous Gullfoss waterfall before heading north into the wilderness towards the glacier. At the Kerlingarfjöll, the colourful mountains of the “old ladies”, we experience the stunning contrast of glacial ice and hot springs. The tour continues east towards Sprengisandur, down the beautiful canyon Laxárgljúfur where the tour ends.

Duration: 6 nights – 6 days riding - 220 km. Departures: July 17 and 26.

19 SPRENGISANDUR – Between Glaciers into the Desert Wilderness

We ride along the ancient Sprengisandur route across Iceland, experiencing the fascinating and extreme contrasts of Icelandic landscape. In the South, we ride on soft green paths along the banks of Thjórsá River. The spectacular, barren wilderness emerges as we follow the sand and rock plains between the glaciers Vatnajökull and Hofsjökull. We stop at a hot spring to relax in geothermal water, a sharp contrast to this scenery, and pass Arnarfell Mountain, Iceland’s geographical centre. The tour takes us until the bottom of Eyjafjörður Fjord in the North Iceland.

Duration: 6 nights – 6 days riding - 260 km. Departures: July 9 and 18. The first tour starts in the south, the second in the north.

20 KJÖLUR – Varied Wilderness Up Close

The Kjölur route is an ancient riding trail, intimately associated with many dramatic events in Icelandic history. We visit the popular attractions of Gullfoss and Geysir as well as uninhabited tracts of land, glaciers, wilderness and hot springs. We ride north between glaciers and spend a night close to a creeping glacier. Hot springs await us at Hveravellir, like an oasis in the desert. We continue towards Northern Iceland until we reach one of its many green and beautiful valleys, our final destination.

Duration: 6 nights – 6 days riding - 240 km. Departures: June 17 and 26, July 13 and 21, August 5 and 15. Every other tour goes in the opposite direction.

Shorter Tours – Winter, Spring & Fall

In winter, spring & fall we offer Shorter Tours providing a varied program for riders of all levels and families. You can choose between riding all day both on excellent trails and in the spacious riding hall or combine riding with sightseeing and other activities. After riding, you can warm up and taste traditional Icelandic food, stay in our comfortable country hotel, relax in the hotel's hot tubs and experience the stunning Northern Lights. Winter time is riding season in Iceland, with thousands of horses in the stables and many horse-events going on! Bring your swimsuit.

INCLUDED IN SHORTER WINTER TOURS

Pick-up in Reykjavik:
17:30 - 18:00.
Riding Time:
2 – 6 hours per day
with stops.

8d NORTHERN LIGHTS TOUR – Riding, Relaxing and Northern Lights

On this tour you will take part in several of our half-day tours as well as Day Tour 5b – Below the Mountains and enjoy the comfort of our hotel. After the morning ride you warm up at lunch at our hotel and spend the afternoon riding, relaxing in Hveragerði's excellent geothermal swimming pool or sightseeing at Gullfoss waterfall and Geysir hot springs. When the sky is clear and the aurora borealis forecast is promising, you can just walk outside to observe the stunning phenomena, or we drive where the chances to watch the northern lights are the best.

Hotel Accommodation. This tour depends on weather, and sightings are not guaranteed.

Duration: 3 nights – 2.5 days riding & ½ day excursion – 34 km.
Departures: 2020: January 27, February 3, 17 and 24, March 2, 9, 23 and 30, April 6, September 28, October 5 and 19, November 2, 16 and 30.

8e NORTHERN LIGHTS GRAND TOUR

This tour gives you the opportunity to combine riding with excursions to impressive natural sights and other activities such as hiking and whale watching. We ride several half-day tours, enjoy bathing in Hveragerði's excellent geothermal swimming pool, our hotel's hot pots or even a natural warm river and visit Gullfoss waterfall, Geysir and Thingvellir. You stay in the guesthouse at our farm and enjoy our hotel's restaurant and facilities. In the evenings, we go out to observe the Northern Lights above our farm (weather permitting).

Guesthouse Accommodations. This tour depends on weather, and sightings are not guaranteed.

Duration: 5 nights – 3 days riding & 2 day excursion & activities – 50 km.

30a WINTER RIDING COURSE

30b In Iceland, winter season is the time for training and education of horses and riders. Our facilities are ideal for a combination of riding instruction in small groups, both theoretical and practical in our riding hall, with riding tours in diverse terrain. Riders who are used to other breeds will learn how to ride an Icelandic horse on well trained tölters. This course is suited for riders of all levels, we put emphasis on riding the different gaits with the rider and the horse in good balance. Participants stay at Hotel or Guesthouse Eldhestar, with access to the hotel's hot tubs and the geothermal swimming pool with steam bath in Hveragerði.

Duration: Tour 30aH & 30aG: 3 nights – 3 days riding program.
Tour 30bH & 30bG: 5 nights – 5 days riding program.

Shorter Tours – Winter, Spring & Fall

21 SHEEP ROUND-UP

This tour provides the unique experience of participating in an Icelandic round-up of sheep. This is an adventure that allows the participant to experience Icelandic nature and the Icelandic soul - both guaranteed to leave a lasting impression.

Duration: 5 nights – 5 days riding - 90 km.
Departure: September 8-13.
Recommended only for experienced riders! Guesthouse Accommodations.

33a FAMILY VACATION – Riding & more for all seasons

33b We provide an ideal opportunity for families to relax in Iceland with us and our horses during school holidays. You get to know different horses, starting with a lesson in the riding hall and then on nice riding trails in a variety of terrains. In the evenings you enjoy good food and bathing in the hot tubs. Children can take care of their „own“ horse and are welcome to spend some time helping in the stable to learn more about horses. Family members who do not want to ride or only want to join a short ride can book the tour without riding program and take part in individual sightseeing tours to the most popular natural attractions in South Iceland instead. For this tour we offer a child reduction for children 17 years and younger. Suited for riders of all levels.

Duration: Tour 33aH & 33aG: 3 nights – 3 days riding program.
Tour 33bH & 33bG: 5 nights – 3 days riding program.
Hotel Accommodation (33a/bH) or Guesthouse Accommodation (33a/bG)
Departures: 2020: February 3 and 17, April 13, October 12.
